

STRANGE WOMAN MAY NOT BE HELD

Police Likely to Release Mrs. Lindsay Unless Direct Evidence Is Secured To-Day.

NEW YORK OFFICER FAILS TO ARRIVE

Escape of Flower, the Real Crook, Chills Effort to Fasten Crime on Others—Love Letters of Courtland Fail to Show Hidden Meaning.

JUST now all in the alleged confidence game involving Dr. Flower, the king of crooks, the mysterious Mrs. Lindsay, or Hagaman, or Delabarre, and their supposed confederates seems to hinge upon the arrival here of a detective from New York, who is said to be on the way. It is understood that he will bring with him papers which will not only justify the arrest of Mrs. Courtland and Charles Edward Courtland, now in jail, but will throw much light on the past life of the woman formerly the wife of Theodore Hagaman, of New York, now said to be married to Dr. Walter E. Delabarre, and known here as Mrs. Lindsay. The officer was expected here last night, though he did not come.

Still Under Eye of Police. Mrs. Lindsay is still in her apartments at the Colonial and while on the advice of her counsel has seen several people, she has consistently refused to give any information concerning the case. She is still under the eye of the police, who watch her house every minute in the day and night. Along with other suspicious things which connect themselves with her, it is known that during her stay at the hotel from which she moved to the Colonial, she never received any mail. It is said that her mail was received by Dr. Flower, who delivered it.

There is yet another unknown figure in the case—a woman who lived on East Clay Street, but who had left the house when inquiry was made concerning her. He sent a communication to Flower when he was living at No. 815 East Franklin Street. The letter was carried by two young girls. He has apparently left the city.

May Leave City To-Day. After her appearance in the Police Court this morning, unless something develops in the meantime by which she can be freed, Mrs. Lindsay will be held in the city until September 22d on the charge of being fugitives from justice, charged with a felony in New York. Gilbert K. Pollock, attorney for the woman, says that she will be acquitted. Chief Werner declares that he will fight the cases with all of his power and will do everything possible to keep all of the parties in the city until something definite can be determined.

The police of New York have been given all the data that could be collected here about Dr. Flower and his associates. They are now endeavoring to catch Dr. Flower. Many Love Letters Passed. Letters now in the possession of the detectives, which are known to have passed between the man Courtland and Mrs. Lindsay, or Delabarre, show conclusively that it is really Dr. Flower who is as deeply into the flower schemes as he; that every transaction, together with the amount of money to be expected from the game, was known to her soon after the bargain was driven. The mode of communication was a round-about one and calculated to throw off any but the shrewdest. As a rule the letters written by Dr. Flower were addressed to his cousin, E. Courtland, who in turn passed them to a boy picked up on the street, who was watched until he delivered them at the Colonial. Letters were also sent with the dinner basket, which was dispatched daily from the flower boarding-house on Franklin Street. The woman invariably replied in the same manner.

In these letters she was always addressed in the most endearing terms. "My precious dear," "dear little," "my precious dear," were the most common adjectives were freely used. After these loving greetings the letters set down to business, describing the progress of the game and giving figures which the reader can only guess showing what share she should expect. They are of the most hopeful and sanguine nature. In one he declares, "I can almost hear the shouts of victory." Though the evidence is almost conclusive that she has been in close touch with Flower for several years, there is no charge against the woman here. If there are no developments after she appears as a witness in the Police Court the police can have no reason for detaining her. She has been released yesterday upon what the identification officers might say.

It is clearly established that Mrs. Lindsay has a good deal of property in the North, and that attachments have been issued against it. Since she has been living in Richmond she has received communications from a lawyer, A. Heaton Robertson, of New Haven, Conn.

Excited Over Simple Matter. Despite the fact that Mrs. Lindsay went for an automobile ride with Gilbert K. Pollock, attorney for C. E. Courtland and Mrs. Courtland, Thursday evening, and thereby caused the railroad detectives to howl that she had slipped away from the city, she is still in her apartments at the Colonial, and the caseless vigil of the police continues. Detective Wilshire, who was on duty at the house, reported the matter to the chief as soon as the machine pulled away. Major Werner replied at once that Mr. Pollock was Delabarre's cousin and was not under arrest, but had a perfect right to take her out. To the sensational talk of the railroad detectives he answered that there was absolutely no use to be alarmed, as he was sure that the two would return.

DREYFUS AFFAIR NOW BURIED

Acquittal of Gregori, Who Shot Dreyfus, Ends Matter for All Time.

PARIS, September 11.—With the acquittal to-night by a jury in the Assize Court of Louis A. Gregori, who fired upon Major Dreyfus during the ceremonies last June incident to the placing of the body of Emile Zola in the Pantheon, the Dreyfus affair, which had been before the courts for more than twelve years, may be said to have been buried beyond all possibility of resurrection.

The government, it was evident from the remarks of the prosecuting general in the summing up, did not want a severe sentence which would make a martyr of M. Gregori, but merely a correctional sentence, which would allow the matter to die out. It was generally anticipated that the court would condemn Gregori to six months' imprisonment, and his complete acquittal partook of the nature of anticlimax.

Those present in the courtroom gave vent to their feelings according to their political views, and the courtroom resounded with mingled hoots and cheers. The president of the court, however, soon quelled the disturbance by ordering the courtroom cleared. An attempt was made to start a demonstration outside the building, but this also was frustrated by the police.

Mr. Gregori addressed the jury as follows: "I appear before you because at my own risk and peril I made a personal protest against the impudence of the Dreyfusards in glorifying the author of 'Debate' in the Pantheon and the honorifics conferred upon the army by being obliged to stand before the man who twice had been convicted by a court-martial. For me," the prisoner said, "the decree of the Court of Cassation was a judicial error; the honorifics conferred upon the army by the Minister of War was a most violent blow to the morale of the army; the Legion of Honor was dishonored by the nomination of Dreyfus, and the ceremony in the Pantheon came as a crowning insult to the French Republic, which defied by Dreyfusism, and I acted in a sort of legitimate self-defense."

SWEPT BY HURRICANE

Lives Lost, Much Damage Done and Ships Missing at Turk Islands.

GRAND TURK, TURK ISLANDS, B. W. I., September 11.—A hurricane of great violence swept over Turk Island last night and this morning and at daybreak to-day the town of Grand Turk was devastated. A number of lives have been lost, but just how many cannot yet be said. Grave anxiety is being felt for the fate of the Roberton district commissioner of Calicos, who was making a tour of the islands when the storm broke.

The hurricane reached here at 2 o'clock this morning. The wind blowing from the northeast at a velocity of nearly 100 miles an hour, and was blowing from the northeast. Much damage has been done to property here, and the streets of Grand Turk are a mass of wreckage. Trees have been uprooted, portions of buildings blown away, and many houses have been partially wrecked.

The Hellenic post-telegraph, which had taken shelter at Hawk's Nest, founded with all hands. The schooner Dan Leon, belonging to the East Calicos Fibre Company, broke away from her anchorage and has not been seen since. All the salt-liters which were moored yesterday at the riding ground and the Hawk's Nest are missing.

The Turks and Calicos Islands lie between 21 degrees and 22 degrees north latitude and 70 degrees and 72 degrees west longitude. Their area is 169 square miles. The most important island, Grand Turk, is six and one-half miles long and two miles broad. According to the census of 1901 Grand Turk contained 1,651 inhabitants, being one-eighth of the total population. Cockburn Harbor, in South Calicos, is the principal settlement in the Calicos group. Grand Turk is the capital of the group, and the residence of the commissioner. The town is neat and clean, and the inhabitants, in spite of the fact that they complain of business depression, appear to be well-to-do. There are in the town several consulates, various stores, a good market place, and a public library and reading room. There are also an Episcopal church, a Catholic church, a school, a small private hospital, and a school house. The staple export is coarse salt. The islands constitute a dependency of Jamaica.

TOLSTOI'S BIRTHDAY

Celebrations Throughout Russia Pass Off Very Quietly.

ST. PETERSBURG, September 11.—The celebrations to-day throughout Russia in honor of the eightieth birthday of Count Tolstoy passed off quietly. No arrests were made anywhere. On the contrary the authorities at the various cities, towns and villages, by their orders prohibiting celebrations, and permitted the people to give special theatrical performances of Tolstoy's plays on the promise that political demonstrations would not be attempted. The only reported measure of importance in St. Petersburg was the suppression of the reactionary newspaper Znamya for an outrageous attack on Tolstoy.

HER AIM WAS TRUE

Young Colorado Girl Held for Shooting.

CRIPPLE CREEK, COLO., September 11.—Armed with a rifle, Miss Annie Coplen, of Gillette, twelve miles from here, fired into a group of men who were making a disturbance in front of her mother's home last night. Robert R. Young, operator of a cyanide plant at Gillette, was wounded over the right eye and cannot recover, and Wilbur Rand was shot in the left leg. Miss Coplen was brought to Cripple Creek.

According to Miss Coplen's mother's story, the men were shouting and singing, and the girl stepped out upon the front stoop and requested them to desist. One of the men, the girl declares, fired at her. She immediately seized a rifle and returned to do battle. Every bullet she fired found a mark. As soon as the two men fell the others fled. The young woman was arrested. Young is married and has three children.

The Lake Michigan Floated. BRIDGEPAIRS, ENGLAND, September 11.—The British steamer Lake Michigan, from Montreal, August 28th, with passengers for London, which stranded yesterday near Margate, was floated to-day. Tugs will seek at Millwall.

GIVES BLESSING TO TEN THOUSAND

Reception of Eucharistic Congress in London Brilliant Affair.

PROTEST IS ENTERED AGAINST PROCESSION

Protestant Alliance Appeals to Home Secretary to Prevent the Carrying of the Host and Wearing of Vestments, Which May Cause Disorder.

LONDON, September 11.—The success attending the Eucharistic Congress reached its climax to-night, when some 10,000 Catholics received the blessing at the hands of the legate.

The reception was a most brilliant affair. There were no speeches, but the organist played selections throughout the function. Among those with Cardinal Vanutelli, on the platform were Archbishop Bourne, the primate of Spain; Cardinals Gibbons, Logie and other distinguished prelates, the Duke and Duchess of Norfolk, and Lord Louth and Lord Kerr.

After the celebration this morning of pontifical high mass in Westminster Cathedral by the Archbishop of Utrecht, who was assisted by a number of other prelates, the delegates to the congress separated to attend the various sectional meetings scheduled for the morning hours. Cardinal Logie presided at one of the English meetings, at which papers were read on "The Eucharistic League" and "The Sacramental League for the Promotion of Daily Communion." The Archbishop of Westminster was chairman of the other English meeting, at which papers on "The History of Daily Communion" and "Recent Pontifical Decrees on Daily Communion" were discussed.

The Protestant Alliance, continuing its opposition to the appearance of the host in the procession to be held in this city next Sunday in connection with the Eucharistic Congress, to-day telegraphed an appeal to the home secretary to prevent the carrying of the host and the wearing of vestments on the occasion. The appeal says: "The Protestant feeling in London and the provinces, as you doubtless are aware, has increased enormously since Tuesday. The country is now looking to you to prevent the law of the land being broken."

The appeal concludes with these words: "Any other course will involve grave danger to the public safety. If riot and disorder should result the responsibility will rest with the Home Office, which has had ample warning of the state of feeling in London since Tuesday. The appeal concludes with these words: 'Any other course will involve grave danger to the public safety.
